DEGREE PROGRAMME HANDBOOK 202

More exceptionally, it is possible to take one module provided by another Department at UCL, or one of the other Colleges of the University of London - students should discuss this with their Degree Co-ordinator.

Subject to space and the agreement of the Course Co-ordinators involved, students are

For some courses, depending on the student's previous background, it may be recommended that they also attend (but will not be assessed for) a parallel undergraduate lecture course, to ensure that they have the background to get the most out of the Masters level seminars.

ORAL EXAMINATION

All Master's students are required to attend an oral examination, normally as part of their Dissertation assessment. This will normally be held in late May or early June. Students must submit to their

of the course. You're nearly at the end of the handbook. Don't give up. These questionnaires are taken seriously and help the Course Co-ordinator to develop the course. The summarised responses are considered by the Degree Co-ordinator, the Institute's Staff-Student Consultative Committee, Teaching Committee, and by the Faculty Teaching Committee. If students are concerned about any aspect of a specific course, we hope they will feel able to talk to the relevant Course Co-ordinator, but if they feel this is not appropriate or have more general concerns, they should consult their Degree Co-ordinator, Personal Tutor, or the Graduate Tutors. They may also consult the Academic Administrator, the Chair of Teaching Committee, or the Director.
